

Trinity Lutheran School
Tuition and Fees 2012-2013

At Trinity Lutheran School our tuition rates are based off a formula. This formula is an honest attempt at continuing to build a successful partnership between congregation and school families in order to provide excellent Christian education. The formula calculates a cost of education per child by taking into account personnel and building maintenance expenses and the estimated student enrollment. Our tuition formula also has a second component. Trinity Lutheran Church has supported the importance of Christian education for over 150 years. As part of that support, the congregation of Trinity provides for 50% of the cost of education for members of Trinity. The church also provides 25% of the cost of education for those community members who do not attend Trinity Lutheran Church. There is a difference between these two percentages because members of Trinity are expected to give a tithe to the Lord through their offerings. Some of that offering then goes back to support the school.

With that information in mind, please see below for the computation of the tuition rates for the 2012-2013 school year:
